

For Friday 2nd November

Big Write: Narrative

Your Big Write task this week is to continue the story of Bilbo Baggins' adventure from the starter below. Your focus is to include a range of punctuation in your writing to create a variety of sentence structures. A particular focus will be how to use direct speech in a way that moves the story on and this will need to be punctuated accurately.

Note down (on the back of this sheet) some ideas of what will happen in your story; you should also write down some examples of how you might include speech in your story, ready to discuss on Friday.

Too afraid to move an inch, Bilbo pressed his back firmly against the ancient oak tree. He could feel his heart thumping frantically inside his chest, as he heard the monster inching gradually ever closer through the undergrowth towards his hiding place. Hands trembling, almost uncontrollably, Bilbo placed the ring on his finger...